“ Shirley Williams Thorn lit a candle in memory of Lillian Jones Hughes

“ Greatly loving the Lord, Ms. Lillian was a treasured friend, a great Sunday school class teacher and WMU director. And she also had a great sense of humor. I remember once, for a church fellowship luncheon, we took peanut butter fudge. Well, Ms. Lillian enjoyed the fudge, but, while we were cleaning the kitchen, she remarked, "Rae, that fudge wasn't any good. I think you need to make a batch for me to take home to sample while I watch t.v. to see if it's any good." We all laughed; and I took that as a high complement. Sadly, she didn't get the fudge but did get a chocolate pie. (Also, Ms. Lillian and my mom were friends who worked together at General Industries. And when I had surgery, she sent an ivy plant, my favorite! What a terrific, special person!) Ms. Lillian has left her trace in many special memories which are treasures time cannot erase. May God's grace, our thoughts and prayers and your special memories comfort you at this time and in the days ahead. Love, Gene and Rae Hall

“ We're sorry for your loss of such a wonderful friend but hope you know she's home. What a wonderful blessing for her to hear our Master say, "Welcome home." Our thoughts and prayers are with you; we pray God will shelter and comfort you during this time and in the days ahead. Love, Gene and Rae Hall

“ Lillian was my best friend. She would say we were likes Peas in a pod. I would tell her two peas could not fit in her pod. She filled it and she did. Lillian loved going to eat fish. We did that once a month. One night she decided she want to drive. I told her fine. On the way back, coming through Cotton Plant she ran a stop sign and I saw lights coming up behind us. I said Lillian there is a police officer behind us. He reply was" I am going to pretend I do not see him. I said" You cannot do that , we will both be arrested. She went a few feet more and pulled over. Innocently she said" what did I do. He said you ran a stop sign. He was a nice man and just talked to her. After we got on down the road. I said Lillian you know that man felt sorry for these two old ladies. That's why he let us go. We got a good laugh but when she parked her car she said " Gay Nell, I'm not driving again.I am going to miss her but I have so many memories. Love you Lillian.
