Bonnie has been one of my trusted and true friends for over 20 years. We met at Christ United Methodist church where we both had many friends. We spoke nearly weekly during all this time and anytime I needed to talk she was available. I live in NC now and yet our friendship remained. We had recently discussed our health and she didn't mention any major issues or concerns, this is very sudden unexpected and very sad.

She loved Ryan and her family I can't imagine the grief they feel. She is already missed by me. Prayers for all of you and particularly Ryan.

Bonnie and I met through work nine years ago and became fast friends. We last saw each other in 2013 but spoke over cellphones several times a week. She had a beautiful voice and will never be forgotten!
