“ I just now found out about Uncle Ray, I'm so sorry- our whole family loved him so much. He was always so much fun to be around, he and Ann were such good friends as well as relatives to my parents, Roger and Kathryn Rolland. He sung the most beautiful song to my mother on her death bed the night before she entered into Heaven. He is definitely going to be missed but has left a beautiful legacy. My prayers and love go out to you Ann and your children and grandchildren. Cynthia Rolland Shearin
