“ Sorry for the loss of your mother. We were friends of her for the 43 years we lived in Wynne. Great memories. I ran into her a few weeks ago at the doctors office in Memphis. It was the first time I had seen or talked to her since I moved from Wynne. We had a good visit while she was waiting on her ride.

“ As Maycie's 'Grandmommy', I had the distinct pleasure of meeting and visiting with Mrs. Jackson on multiple occasions over the past 5-6 years. She was a gracious lady with a lovely smile and a warm heart. My guess is that she never met a stranger and was larger than life itself. My condolences go out to each member of her family and my prayer is that God will give them the strength needed to see them through this time and beyond. I'm certain they will have wonderful memories to reflect upon that span their lifetime. Placing the whole family in my prayers.

Regards,
