“ Charlene and Bill have been friends of ours since we moved to Wynne in 1972. I always enjoyed Charlene. She had such a winning personality. I enjoyed our supper club with them for many years. She was a great cook! She was active in many organizations and her children's life's and activities. A true friend!!

“ My husband and I first met Charlene in 1973 when we accepted our first teaching job in Wynne. I learned a lot about teaching history from Charlene she was a wonderful mentor and friend. She had so many ideas and was so creative. She taught me how to cross stitch. She embraced life and loved her family so much. We were so fortunate to have a friend like Charlene in our lives. We will miss her. Virginia and Marvin Francisco
