“ *Marty and family,
I was so sorry to hear about your mother. When I was in Wynne for my class reunion, I got to see your mother. It was such fun to spend time with her. I will always remember the twinkle in her eye, her astuteness, and joy for life. May you take comfort in your joyful memories and her love for you and your family.*

“ Marty, I'm so sorry, i just read Ms. B's Obit, i live right here in Wynne & i hadn't heard. She was one of my favorite people& i think I was one of hers.I came to know her when Cecil was living, she & i became friends. She was always trying to find me a "man"(smile). I just loved her so much, Oh my God i'm really devastated to find out that she passed & i didn't get a chance to say my goodbyes,i'd seen her @ the hospital , this is where i work, back in Jan. & we had our usual discussion about if i'd found somebody yet. You had such a sweet mother, please know that i will miss her much. Jeni Perie

“ Dear Marty, you will never know how much I think of you and your family, especially Bev and our "sister sleep-overs" with the Thalgott girls. I am so happy to know you have married a pastor! Your mom was a doll and I know you will miss her very much. Hopefully we will see everyone at the Rapture. Love, ann hart
