“Wow! First I would like to give my deepest condolences to the family. Birdie Scott to me was a sweetheart. She was like sunshine whenever I was feeling down. I will always remember our private conversations about life and knowing my worth. So long my Soror. I will miss you!

“The sweetest lady I knew is gone. My condolences to her family. As children, cousins and siblings of mine, played with the boys when we visited with our grandparents, Arthur and Agnes Shaver at the Bur Place. As an adult, Bertie and I stayed in touch through cards and letters. My last visit with her, in West Memphis, will remain with me as someone that had the happiest giving attitude, with a fruitful garden in the very small space. She is missed. Sincerely, Jean ps my aunt, Virginia Shaver Caruthers sends her sympathies to the family.

Thank you, Francis. Just the other day I was thinking about all of you and how much I enjoyed your visit to our house. You were so pretty and so smart and Carolyn was like an older sister. It was so easy to love your entire family. Thank you for your very kind words.
