“ I just found out about Bobby's passing. He was a good friend. We met threw bowling and had some great times together. We didn't stay in touch but I always will count him a friend. He loved to garden and I sure enjoyed the tomatoes he shared. My condolences to this family and friends

“ I have thought of nothing else for the past couple of days. We grew up as children together, but had seldom seen one another as adults. Even though I had not seen him in years I will miss that kid I grew up with.

“ Bobby was like the younger brother I never had. We met when working at BellSouth and became close friends almost immediately. It was like we knew we would always be a part of each others lives throughout the years. Throughout the years we shared so many good times and adventures with families and friends; bowling, camping, helping with gardens and fruit trees, fishing, singing, playing bridge, and just cooking good meals and sharing laughter. Bobby had a heart large enough to love the world and he cared deeply about anyone who was a part of his life. Though we will miss him terribly here, I know he is rejoicing in heaven now with other loved ones who were waiting there for him. Be at peace, Bobby...and thank you for all your brought to our lives.
