“ My deepest sympathies to all the Owens family. The loss, the anger, the pain will all pass and what will remain will be the wonderful memories of his laugh, his smile, his child like playfulness - he will forever be in our hearts.

I will think of him and smile ever time I paint my toe nails.

“ Connie, I remember when your family moved to Wynne, riding the school bus into downtown,holding hands with Brock on the walk from the bus,& working with you and my Aunt Sis (Phyllis) at Oakwood Jewelers. I am saddened by the loss of my friend and will always cherish those fun memories of the happy-go-lucky Brock. My prayers will be with you and the family. Sending you a big hug and wishing I could be there! Stephanie “ Sending prayers and love to Brocks Daughters and his family. I am so saddened by his passing. We went to Wynne High School together, he was always so fun loving and mischievious! I have lots of memories of his great big smile. Heaven welcomed a wonderful new Angel. I pray for strength and Gods healing love for all those who loved Brock.
