“ I always love uncle Gene & aunt Carrie, after my mother gave us away I never was around them at all. She told me a story about 7 months ago and I will always cherish her story. My brother Danny Eugene Skelton died in a car wreck in 1968, they came to his funeral and cried with us over the loss of my brother and their nephew and here is what she told me in a phone conversation. When she become pregnant with another child she and uncle Gene decided when her son was born they would call him Danny. I never knew until she told me. I'm sure she is rejoicing with all our loved ones in heaven. I am praying for her children and grandchildren and great grands. God bless each of you and I love all of y'all!
