“ Although not technically related by blood, in my heart Charles was another father to me. He was without a doubt the gentlest, kindest, most giving and big-hearted man I have ever or will ever know. I am honored and privileged to have had him in my life and the lives of my children. Charles was a man who loved the Lord, loved his family, loved his life; and I never once heard him speak an unkind word about anyone. In return, I've never heard a single person have an unkind word to say about Charles. He was the truest example of Good; mankind at its absolute Best. Charles once introduced me to friends of his and almost called me his daughter. He looked over at me and laughed and said I might as well be, he thought of me as his daughter. I was so proud and inspired by those words, and I know he meant them! I will always feel the loss of this wonderful man. He treated not only me, but my children as well as if we were his own; for this we will forever love him! All those who loved him as father, grandfather, family, or friend will grieve the loss of this beloved man. He will be in our hearts Always & Forever!
