

Clara Boone Henson

December 7, 1931 - September 2, 2025

Mrs. Clara Boone Henson of Wynne, Arkansas, passed away at her home on Tuesday, September 2, 2025, at the age of 93. Born on December 7, 1931, in Wynne to George and Eva Boone, Clara married James “Josh” Henson in 1949. Together, they built Henson Lumber Company and Henson Ready Mix. Clara also owned and operated Two Sisters Antiques. She was a devoted businesswoman and active in her community through Rotary, where she was named a Paul Harris Fellow, and through the Republican Party of Cross County. She also enjoyed playing golf with the Crowley’s Ridge Country Club Ladies’ Golf Association, being active in the Wynne Garden Club, and visiting with the ladies of her daily coffee group. Clara’s warmth and kindness touched many lives, and she will be remembered with love. She was a Christian.

She is survived by her daughters, Sharon Sisk and husband Richard of Wynne, and Tracie Singleton and husband Mike of Wynne; 12 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and 9 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, George and Eva Boone; her husband, Josh Henson, in 1989; her daughter, Linda Kesl; and her grandson, Jesse Robinson.

Visitation will be held on Friday, September 5, 2025, at Kernodle Funeral Home from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. A graveside service will follow immediately at Cogbill Cemetery at 11 a.m. You can sign the online guestbook at www.kernodlefh.com.
