“Daniel, my God I cannot bieve this. Ots so surreal. Seeing and spending time alone qith you Friday made it real. I still somehow in my mind try to convince myself your still with us. Sweetheart may you always be remembered as a very great, big hearted, man. May you know as you walk in Heaven with Samuel, Grandma Strasser, and the other members of your family, and friends that you are definetly leaving behind alot of years of great memories, love, awesome times . You are definetly one of a kind. There is no other more strong, loved, caring, beautiful smile and just a perfect man. You will forever be missed and loved by me and all the wonderful people in your if that knew and loved you as well. I love you and this will never ever change how I feel about you. I will meet you in heaven. My love, heart and Superman

“ *My life forever changed on Thursday morning...
I lost my best very friend. A man who holds such a big part of my heart.
We met by chance, playing a game together. You were my rock when I needed one. You were absolutely one of a kind. The likes of which will never be seen again.
We helped each other through some very tough times. When I felt like dying, you were the one who talked me through it. I would NOT be here, if it wasn't for you.
You were the brightest part of my day. I looked forward to your good morning texts every day. Your advice was always well thought out and honest.
I cannot express enough, what a sweet, smart, thoughtful, considerate, respectful and caring man you were.
I appreciate you more than I can ever convey.
Your family should be so very proud of the man you became.
The world will forever be worse off without you in it.
I will miss you until my own time comes to an end.
I am so very honored to have been able to know you.
You will forever hold a very special place in my heart.*

Until we meet again...

Goodbye handsome.
