“ There she stood, her dark curly hair full & bouncy. Her eyes sparkling as her smile filled her face...1952 my first memory of my very special cousin. It was love at first sight. Even though life had not been easy for this teenager, she was genuinely happy. She loved God, her family & treasured her friends. Delores was a big cousin I wanted to be like. Even today, the love & admiration for my cousin-sister flows from a heart she tenderly touched. Our family reunion is in full swing in Heaven and Delores' sweetness just makes it better. She doesn't need to be taught to reverence God, for she learned that early in life. She knows her place in the Father's House & fills it with grace. Grateful for the truth she put in all our hearts here. Loving & faithful we all will be...to fulfill God's purpose until it is time to take our place Tender love to David, Lenora Nell, Ben David, Timmy, Amy & all the grands
