“ Cricket:
I know that we don't always understand why things happen the way they do here on earth; just remember that you and your family are in God's plan and just lean on him for support at this time of sorrow. You are in our prayers and never far away from our thoughts. We love you.

“ Dianne is looking on us and wondering what all the sadness is about. She is now in the most wonderful place imaginable; where there is no pain or suffering. Though we all miss her terribly, we should celebrate the wonderful times we've had with her and cherish our memories until we see her again in Heaven.
Love always,
