“ Donna was always one of my favorite aunts. She had a beautiful smile and infectious laugh that would brighten any room. I hadn't seen her much in the years since Uncle Denny died but I know she lived a great and rewarding life. RIP Aunt Donna.

“ Donna and I were dear friends and taught together, for years!!! During our time at Tontitown Elementary, Donna lived just around the corner from the school- in those days we had no air conditioning, so the windows and front door were always open, in warm weather. A funny, dear memory of those days was if a storm came up, Honey, the family Brittany Spaniel, would run to the school, enter the front door and proceed to the teacher’s lounge- we would find her, perched on the couch, grinning from ear to ear, as she escaped the scary thunder!!! We got so much fun and laughter from that sweet dog!!!!

“ Aunt Donna was a fun lady! She was also kind and loving. After all, she was married to Uncle Denny! Loved them both. 😊

“ I remember Donna fondly (as well as Dennis). Kathleen and I were friends in school, and I practically lived over at their house. One thing I will always remember, and I have no idea why this is the memory stuck in my head when I think of Donna. Kathleen had a really mean Siamese cat (I've forgotten his name). Donna was sitting on the couch knitting or sewing, and that cat was insistent in sitting in her lap while she did it. I was jealous because the cat wouldn't even let me pet him even though I was a major cat person. But I remember he was so clingy to Donna, and I don't think that she was really all that thrilled about it. ❤️
