“ Glenn & I would like to send our heart felt condolences to Dustin's family. Dustin and Glenn shared times together while serving in the Army National Guard during their tours of duty. Whenever I saw Dustin he would always acknowledge and flash that smile and would fondly ask about "Sgt. Tabor". I am going to miss that smile. He was a great guy! With sincere prayer from Glenn & Frankie Tabor

“ Barrett and I served together in Iraq during the 2003 deployment. During pre-mobilization we were given a weekend pass/leave to go home to Arkansas. Barrett had a little yellow Ford Edge pickup. We'd decided that since we didn't have much time we were going to put it on the floor and get back to Arkansas as fast as possible. During Barrett's turn at driving we were pulled over by a Texas Highway Patrol officer. He came up to the truck and got our drivers licenses, insurance, etc. He asked Barrett what the hurry was. So he explained that we were about to go to Iraq for the first time, we were going home and didn't have much time, etc. The Patrolman shook his head like he understood and said he'd be right back. A few minutes later he reappears at Barrett's window and gives us all of our documents back. He says, Ya'll boys slow it down and be careful going home. And be safe over there. Oh, and here's your ticket. Barrett got so mad he turned bright red...lol I don't know if he ever got over that but he was sure mad about it for the rest of our time in Texas. Barrett may be gone but he'll never be forgotten. Rest in peace brother.
