

Edith Pauline Farmer Neisler

March 9, 1931 - November 2, 2024

Edith Pauline Farmer Neisler, 93, of Colt died on Saturday, November 2, 2024, at her home in Colt, surrounded by her family. She had been in poor health for the past 8 years.

Pauline was born on March 9, 1931, in Egypt, Arkansas and was the daughter of the late Lloyd and Loss Farmer and Dorothy Mae Adkisson Farmer. She lived in Colt most of her life. She was a homemaker until she began working at Rainfair as a seamstress. She was also a vital committee member in helping to get the William Stone House listed on the National Register of Historic Places. She was a member of Colt Baptist Church. She was a loving mother and grandmother to all.

Pauline married Jack Neisler in 1946, and he preceded her in death in 1976. She is survived by her children Anneida Neisler Evans of Benton, Arkansas and Gene Neisler and Anita of Colt, two grandchildren, five great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Kenneth Dale Farmer of White Hall, sister, Charlotte Kay Baskin of Wynne. Pauline leaves many special nieces, nephews and friends to cherish her memory. Family, friends, and memories is what kept this special lady going every day. She talked about holding on to your memories because they were yours to keep. She was always afraid that the disease she had would cause her to lose that one thing, her memories.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, November 6, 2024, from 10 am until 11 am at Kernodle Funeral Home with services following at 11 am with Rev.

Tracy Wilson and Ken Patterson officiating. The burial will be in Hughes Cemetery, Colt, Arkansas. Kernodle Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. You may sign an online guestbook at www.kernodlefh.com
