“ Just sending my condolences to the family and my classmate Cynthia. Look to the hills for which cometh your help. For weeping endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Treasure the leagacy your father left behind and remember memories never die. All those greats memories share with your children and his leagacy will live on forever. I will continue to pray for the family.

“ Cynthia, I just saw the notice about your Father's passing today. I am so sorry. There are no words that will take away your pain - just know that many people, friends and family, love you and are praying for you and your family. If you ever need someone to talk to, please email me or call me at my Dad's house. I've always thought you were a special person and thought the world of you. God Bless you and your family.
