“ Mrs. Ermaline and my mother (Wilene Bilbrey Hinton) would take trips to Imboden/Strawberry area in the '90s. Both had grown up in that area and loved to go "home" to visit friends and relatives. I heard many stories of those fun trips before Mother passed away in 2010. Two beautiful ladies who loved their roots in the hills of Arkansas. Love and prayers to Mrs Ermaline's family and friends and my gratitude to her for being a lovely, loving friend to my mother.

ME

I met Mrs. Eans at Wynne Baptist church many years ago. She was in my mother's, Ella Taylor, Sunday school class. What a delightful lady Miss Ermaline was. She added a lot to the class was always showed interest in me. I have fond memories of her and she was a blessing to me. Wish we had more ladies like her that loved the Lord and honored Him. Blessings to the family, Martha Taylor Ensminger
