“ I spent a lot of time at Mrs. South house, with Libby. She always made me feel like one of her own kids. Mrs. South was the nicest lady I have ever met. Go rest high on that mountain. I love you Mrs. South, and you will be missed.

“ So sorry to learn of the passing of Mrs. South. Our families attended the same church while growing up and I spent several nights through the years at her home with Joyce. She was a kind and sweet lady. I know you girls will miss her, but what joy she is experiencing with her Lord now. May God 's love comfort you all during this sad time.

I will always remember Ms. South when she was in a room close to my mother, who was very ill. Ms. South tried to take care of my mother and give her comfort. I will always remember her for that.
