“ I was only 4-5 years old when Aunt Evelyn (or Aunt Onion as I called her from my early years because I couldn't say Evelyn!) came to live with us. We lived in Wynne and she moved from her parents' home in Tuckerman to Wynne. She shared my room with me like a big sister and I totally adored her, my whole life! I remember the future Uncle Bill coming to our house to pick her up for a date. I thought that was so cool! My little brother, Garry, would crawl all over 'Bill' while he waited for his date to get ready! We didn't know then they would marry and we'd have them all these years! I digress. I loved them both, but she was so very special to me! Till I see you again, Aunt Onion! ❤️❤️👍

“ I am very sorry to hear this. I didn't know her that well but she raised some wonderful children so must have been a special woman. Thoughts and prayers for you all.
