“ I first met Mrs. Faye when my dear friend Rose Ann invited me to visit her hometown for a weekend. Rose Ann was my nursing school roommate. Mrs Faye had cooked the most delicious meal, she was an amazing cook. She was so friendly and adorable from day one. Always vibrant, bringing joy to all who knew her. We became FB friends which made it easy to keep in touch over the years. I am thankful to have met her. She will be missed.

“ Faye and I go way back. We’ve learned to play bridge together and we had all of our children gathered around us and I don’t think any of them learn to play bridge. I have always loved Faye is a very good friend I’ve talk to your seldom but we were always just picked up where we left off. Your mom was an outstanding person kind generous and loving.
