

Frances Moore

November 7, 1926 - May 19, 2012

Mrs. Frances Moore, 85, of Wynne, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, May 19, 2012 in Vanndale, Arkansas.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George T. Davis and Vada Mae Moretz Davis; brothers, Grady Davis and Glenn Davis and sister, Gladys Riley.

Frances was born and raised in the Pleasant Hill Community near Vanndale, Arkansas. In 1944, she graduated from Vanndale High School, where she was an avid Basketball Player. After graduation, Frances pursued her love of the sport by joining a women's basketball team sponsored by Wynne Businesses. A life-long bookkeeper, Frances worked for Western Auto, Jones Oil Company, Billings Oil Company, and Taylor Oil Company. During the late 1960's to 1970's she was co-owner of Vic's Dollar Store in Downtown Wynne. Frances enjoyed spending time with her family, reading, and traveling.

Survivors are her son, James (Jim) Moore and wife Jamie; daughters, Myra Suzanne Easley of Little Rock, Arkansas; and grandchildren, Tyler, Dalton, Dylon and Dakota Moore.

Visitation will be Tuesday, 10 to 11 AM at Kernodle Funeral Home with services following at 11. Burial will be in Crosslawn Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Cross County Library, American Cancer Society or to the First United Methodist Church in Wynne.

“ While none of us knew "Aunt Frances" personally, we all felt like we knew her well through Beth. Beth loved her dearly and has shared that deep love and compassion with us on many occassions. Know that thoughts of you and your family are with the members of the Native American Forum Team on Etsy today. In the words of Chief Seattle... "There is no death, there is only a change of place." Know that she will be with you always. Walk in peace and harmony. Joni Stinson Captain Native American Forum Team
