“ I'm sorry for your loss. I can understand your pain since I lost my father and see my mothers suffering. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at First Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scripture in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ Dearest Ann - this is your old neighbors from Murrey Drive in Pulaski. We live in Nashville now near our son, Johnny, who's writing this for us. George provided me (Johnny) with my first job earning my own money selling those social security name plates at every factory in town - gave me my first taste of business & how to save wisely. Also, recall being facinated listening to folks all over the world on that ham radio - WB4xxx. We still get the local Giles Free Press & caught the obituary from last week's paper. So sorry to hear about your loss & often wondered where you all landed after moving off to Columbia. I remember George's mother well too - I keep a saying of hers with me today "whatever you do in live, as long as you're not ashamed of it, it's okay". Glad to see you have a growing family with the grandkid triplets and the generations continue. Our thoughts & prayers are with you, Ann, during these dark times but know the Lord is with you in this time of need.
