

Harry McFarland

May 15, 1942 - September 22, 2023

Mr. Harry McFarland went to be with Jesus on September 22, 2023, in the comfort of his home while his wife Barbara was in the kitchen. Harry would say, "I snuck out when she wasn't looking". Harry was born on May 15, 1942, in Vanndale, Arkansas, to Lonnie and Earline (Cook) McFarland. Although he spent some years working for GM in Michigan and cross-country truck driving, Harry was a farmer. His most satisfying years were spent farming rice and soybeans. He owned and managed a duck club for more than 30 years and formed lasting friendships with the fine, godly men in his club. Harry acknowledged Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior on January 6, 2022. He loved to tell the story of his baptism, which took place on February 9, 2022, at home in his bathtub. Harry forgot many things, but he never forgot that he belonged to Jesus and that Heaven was his eternal destiny. He was a member of Wynne Baptist Church.

Harry was preceded in death by his parents, his nephew, Perry McFarland, and his son, Todd McFarland. He is survived by his wife, Barbara, his daughter and son-in-law, Tracy and Rich Kelly of New Jersey, son and daughter-in-law, Victor and Maggie McFarland of Vanndale, grandsons, Hayden Anderson and wife Jessica of Sheldon, Missouri, and Sgt. Hugh Kelly and wife Morgan of Columbus, Georgia, one granddaughter, Nina McFarland, brother, Johnny McFarland and wife Tokonia of Wynne. Three great-grandsons and many extended family members, including loving sister and brother-in-law, Janet and Brian Rudd also survive.

Harry was blessed to have many special friends and neighbors who loved him, including Faye Lamastus and her sons, Keith Lawrence, Steve Reynolds, Hugh Francis, Robert Frazee, Brett Carwell, Pastor James and Marci Langston, and Bo and Linda Crumley. If he were here, he would also want to give a “thumbs up” to many kind people who checked on him and looked out for him, including (but not limited to) Walmart team members Winston, Andy, Diane, Karen, Kara, Kim, Katanya, Ophelia, Rosemary, and Bettie; Gary and Jesse at the FSA Co-op; and Shirley at Caldwell Lumber. We are thankful for new friends, including nurse Darlene, Natalie, and Ann, who provided him and his family with loving and skilled care.

Visitation will be held at Kernodle Funeral Home, Tuesday, September 26, 2023, from 12:30 until 1:30 PM. Graveside services will follow at Crosslawn Cemetery, 2 PM with Rev. James Langston officiating.

Memorials may be made to Mission Encounters International, P. O. Box 2171, Kill Devil Hills, NC 27948.

“ Brian always enjoyed visiting with Harry, sipping on coffee together, listening to his stories and experiences. It meant a lot to both of us that Harry cared about our safety living in Memphis, always warning us to be careful. We will miss him but can't be happier for him that he is now in Heaven with his Savior.

“ Barbara, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I grew up just up the road from Harry. Tracey and I was good childhood friends. Harry used to come by my grandparents house and I would see him there too, as well as out in the fields farming. I know you will miss him. Just know that he is with the Lord and that you will be with him again someday. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Love to all, Anita Kennedy

“ *To my dear friend Barbara and family,
Our hearts and prayers are with you. Harry will be greatly missed. This morning I had a flash of when he delivered your bicycle to our garage so you could ride with me on a paved road! He made sure I knew that he put a lock on it and gave me the key. He wanted it to remain safe since it was “a good one”. It was a Schwinn, one of the best. He loved you Barbara and wanted you to be safe. I remember on so many of our long trips to finish our counseling supervision requirements that he made sure you had the best means of travel with a good heavy car, a Lincoln, the best. So I rejoice today in knowing that Harry was transported by the Spirit of God, the best means of travel ever designed, into his eternal home of heaven and safely in the arms of Jesus. Hallelujah! “Dad, you were steadfast, true to your beliefs and complicated. Most of all you were resilient and stubborn to the end. Your strength, often sarcastic words of wisdom and sheer force of nature have guided me , as there is no mistaking 'I am my father's daughter'...

I love you, I miss you, but most importantly, you now have to sit next to Memoo and listen to her singing as loud as possible...and we all knew she couldn't carry a tune...till we meet again!
