“ *TO: THE BURNETT AND HINCHEY FAMILIES:
Our World has lost a Wonderful Lady and Heaven has gained one. I have known Mrs Burnett most of my life going all the way back to when Ronnie and I were two little boys playing in the cotton fields together. May God's Love bring you Peace and Healing and the Joy of knowing that Helen is with the Lord along with many that she Loved along Life's Pathway.. May God Bless each of you.
Sincerely,
George Vance*

“ Two things I would say about Aunt Helen, sweet and kind. She never had a bad word to say about anyone. She loved to Dance!! I gave her a Bob Seger CD and she loved it!! Said dancing was her exercise.

“Aunt Helen I love you so much. Thank you so much for being the most Beautiful woman I know. Your Beauty and Love made such an impression on my life. I always wanted to be just like you: strong, loving and always giving. You always made sure we were feed, clothed and knew how much you loved us and that we were valued by you! Words just can't express what you have meant to Momma and us 6 children ! I love you so much!! Rest in the Love of Jesus Christ!! You will be deeply missed!! Sherri Darlene.
