Some of the family's favorites were her delightful coconut cream pie, her delicious fruit cocktail cake, her scrumptious peach and blackberry cobblers, her incredible fried chicken, her hearty homemade gravy, and biscuits, and too many others to mention. Before the "beast" of dementia took over her mind, Mable enjoyed tending to her many vegetables in her garden that she had every year. She loved smelling the roses and other beautiful flowers that grew in her yard. She enjoyed watching her daytime soap operas, especially All My Children, Days of Lives, and General Hospital. She loved spending her time at family gatherings reunions and visiting with friends and neighbors. She enjoyed reading her bible and worshiping her "Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" at Valley View Missionary Baptist Church of Wynne.
