“ Karen, I'm so very sorry about the death of your dad. Even though I didn't know him he must have been a outstanding man. You are a wonderful example of his life. The one thing I do recall was Gary talking about how your dad told him to spray roundup around all your home and he would never have to weed eat. Every time I see roundup I think about him coming to work and telling me how he would never have to weed eat again. Just a sweet little memory about a you dad. I'm sure you'll find more and more sweet memories and I hope that will ease the loss. You are in my thoughts. I'm here if you need me.

“ What can I say about this man. He was kind to me when many others were not. He believed in me when I gave him no reason to. He taught me how to be a father, a friend, and most importantly, how to be a Christian. One of my favorite things he told me when I was older, that I also share with my kids, "Remember what I did right, and do that. Remember what I did wrong , and don't do that." He meant as parents, we are not always going to get it right. So many more. I'll finish by paying him the best compliment I can say about a man. I am a much better person because he was in my life !

When my husband was ill in the 80s and I was trying to hold things together and do our farming by myself, JL offered me a job at the Co-op. Although I could not take the job, I have never forgotten his kindness, and the fact that he had seen my situation, and wanted to help. I am grateful that he cared for me, and my family.
