“ I'm so going to miss this big teddy bear, his hugs every Sunday at church always brightened my day. I'll catch up with him one day and start getting my hugs back! John and Patsy and the whole family, keep his good legacy going! John, we go way back in the day when we were in school, I'm so glad to call you a great friend and by knowing you, I was able to get to know your dad. Thanks! God has blessed this whole family by giving you the perfect man in your lives. I'll miss his smiling face! Love y'all

“ I was so very saddened to hear of JT's passing. My - what wonderful memories I have of being with our family friends, such as the great Christmas gatherings at the Duncan house, laying on and playing with Dunc, their preciously tolerant bulldog and having cigar smoke blown in your face as a child (yes, I still know his brand when I smell it even a half century later). I was also never so proud as to drive the 1957 baby-blue Mustang JT restored that my parents bought for my 16th birthday.

JT was a great guy - and I always knew when he was around by his very distinctive voice (which his cigars may have helped to develop). When he came to my mother's visitation in January, I immediately knew who he was when he said "Hey Stinky" - my pet name from Wayne Cartillar - another of the "bunch".

Although he may no longer be with us, like me, I'm sure there are many, many wonderful memories that will keep JT close to our hearts until we see him again.

My thoughts and prayers,
