“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost a child many years ago and I lost my father recently so I can understand your pain. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26;19, and Revelation 21;3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ I read about this on Barrel Horse World, and just wanted to let you guys know that there are so many people in the barrel racing who are praying along side you, mourning your loss with you and our hearts really go out to you. Most of us cannot imagine enduring the loss of a child and pray we never do. Just know that your sweet little boy is in the arms of Jesus Christ, and there is no better place to be. I hope you will seek comfort and peace through the Lord in this difficult time and know that you will never understand why, but He needed an angel like Jackson. God bless your family, and please lean on your community of fellow barrel racers, or anyone you need to. We're all here for you.

“ You guys are in my prayers. No words can describe my sympathy. Just know that I love you and I am here for you. I found this poem, I hope it brings you comfort.
*Precious Son God, I know you gave your precious Son To give us life with You.
But we didn't want our son to leave, Cause he was precious too. We all are special in your eyes And all to you return. We know our son will not come back, And for this our hearts still yearn. Our time on earth is for learning, And when our lessons are through, Our Lord will choose the time we leave, And we come back to you. Our precious son is with you, And there will be a day, That we too will leave this earth, And you will light our way. His arms will be wide open, And the wait will be worthwhile, When we see again our precious son, And the splendor of his smile. Anon
