“ Jacob was a loving and resolution oriented big cousin. With him, a firm handshake was important, but a strong embrace for his cousin was always to follow. His love transcended generations and time and sought to do good and bring balance to his family. Consistently reminding his younger cousin that he loved him and putting those words into action. Godspeed, Jacob and thank you for keeping, "our promise," alive. Comfort and peace to Leigh Ann and your family.

“ Can't believe Jacob died...last time we saw him he was in good health. He was always so smart in school and could draw so good.
Always thought he would be a artist
someday...
So sorry to hear he is gone but I know he is excited to see Jesus!!
God Bless you all and you will certainly be in our prayers.

“ Leigh Ann, I am so sad about your loss, his mother's loss and our loss of Jacob. I always enjoyed seeing him and he never failed to speak to me whether I was asking about his mom or just saying hello. He will certainly be missed by many. He left us too soon. May God give you the "peace that surpasses all understanding." George
