“ Charlie, Bud, Eugene, Delbert, Janie & Barbara.....know that you have my deepest heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your Brother, Jim.

Linda & Rick.....all the nieces & nephews, cousins, friends & acquaintances...I am so sorry for your loss..... But especially for Wayne, David & James Johnson.....my heart breaks for you. You had the very good fortune to be shown how good men treat others. Your Uncle Jim was the kindest, sweetest, most compassionate man I have EVER had the pleasure to know. He was always with a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. I am forever grateful he took you under his wings, so to speak, his sense of humor, his wonderful outlook on life, his personality will be truly missed forever, but to know he is now with his beloved Dena, I pray brings peace to you all.

Love and peace to you all

“ Uncle Jim was such a special man. Him and I share the same birthday. When we did get to go to Arkansas, we loved going to his house. He always reminded me of my Dad, (Roy Johnson), good heart and lots of love for family. I'm sure Aunt Dena is happy to see him, and the reunion in heaven will be one of lots of hugs, kisses, and an eternity of family get togethers. Lots of love to the whole family. We know what you are going through.
