“ Amy and I would like to say thank you for all the prayers and the continued support of our family and friends. In a few shorts days I will travel to Amy’s and we will lay our dad to rest. We have decided that what he did or didn’t do no longer matters, that’s all over with. We are focusing on the good times. Looking back on our childhood he and our mom loved us and the times we will cherish are filled with smiles. Also included corduroy pants, mud pies, and him being by our side. We hope you are resting in peace with your family who passed on before you. Thank you for loving us. I’ve learned a valuable lesson during this process, forgive as often as you can, do what can for your loved ones even when you have mixed emotions because in the end when all else fails all you have is love and no regrets. Rest In Peace daddy, you gave it one hell of a ride.
