“ I have thought of your dad a lot today. While in church I began to laugh to my self while father was talking and remember that you dad and his brother had a five gallon can for a seat in the old car got it running and drove it across this busy street behing a driving movie place. I could not believe it but these two so many thing that you now have to smile about them. they had a book that they kept the expensives for the old car the back of the book was how many cases of beer they drank while working on it. It was great to have him in our lives. matter of fact he seen our son before his father did he came to the hopital to ck on me and the baby God bless Joe I know that he is the glory of the lord. “ Uncle Joe was the last to leave us. He always lovingly called me "cousin Vicki" which made us all laugh. He was a wonderful human being and he will be missed very much!
