“ You are a Navy Veteran, had your wings even! Not many know of your true services and how brave you are! You are humble, intelligent and knowledgeable. Stop in on me once in awhile. I will light a blue candle just for you to light your way! Love you forever Dad.

“ I am still not sure I have the words...but with Dad I never needed them, he knew. He held me up at a time in my life I'm not sure I ever wanted to stand again. He laughed at my mistakes and said oh well, try again. No judgement ever held against me. I love you Dad, I'm so happy you are free from pain and filled with the light. I miss you already. Please send me a Snickers bar every now and then.

“ I have found memories of us volunteering together out at Lake Marwin. We had so much fun working the haunted walk there, with all the Fire Fighters & EMT's. My face hurt each night from laughing so much!!!!!! And how many bbq's did we have out there!!! Then our annual Fire Fighter festivals at Hills Department Store. The memories will forever be carried in my heart Daddy.

Dad LOVED the Steelers! He watched every game. I remember as a little girl, he would jump up in his recliner when they scored. Once, he flipped over backwards,,, feet up in the air and he still hooted, hollered & laughed!
