

Julia Gardner

July 14, 1914 - August 19, 2012

Mrs. Julia Gardner of Wynne went to be with the Lord, Sunday, August 19th. She was the widow of J.R."Teanie" Gardner who predeceased her by 29 years.

The funeral service was held at Wynne Baptist Church on Tuesday, August 21st, Rev. Bob Wilson officiating. Internment was in Cogbill Cemetery in Wynne.

Julia consistently invested her life in others and taught in the Wynne Public School system for many years. Culminating as the high school art teacher, her teaching career included elementary, junior high, and high school. She served on the State Library Board, the Arkansas Public Building Authority, the Committee 100, the Cross County Arts Council, and for 32 years on the Cross County Library Board. She was the 2000 Wynne Volunteer of the Year and in 2006 was recognized as the Arkansas Governor's "Lifetime Arts Patron". She served Wynne Baptist Church as a choir member and Sunday school teacher and will be greatly missed by family and friends.

She is survived by two children, Sidney Marks Dailey; husband Ken, of Austin, TX. and by Randy Gardner, wife Allison, of Atlanta, Ga.

Memorials may be sent to Wynne Baptist Church Missions Ministry, 1200 Bridges Street, Wynne, AR 72396; to Bible Training Centre for Pastors, 2030 Tucker Industrial Rd. #126, Tucker, GA. 30084; to Cross County Arts Council, P.O.1092, Wynne, AR 72396; or to Cross County Library, 410 E. Merriman, Wynne, AR 72396.

“ Though I did not know Mrs. Gardner personally, I certainly knew of her talents and dedication to so many, through organizations and perhaps, more importantly, to her students.

“ How could anyone who knew and loved Julia Gardner forget her wonderful laugh! Julia could light up a room. Everyone knew Julia Gardner or knew of her. I've know her since I was a friend of Sidney's in Earle,Ark. Our friendship started during our toddler years. When Sidney and I turned 60 I suggested that we stop sending each other birthday gifts! Julia agreed. This wonderful family is a big part of my life and we all will miss darling Julia! Jan

“ When our first child was born on a Sept. Sunday morning at 9:00 she, Margaret Dearing and some of their Sunday School class members were the first visitors at the hospital to greet the new baby. It was a nice gesture and has been long remembered.
What a great lady!
