“ I met Tommy several years ago when I was introduced to him by Virgil "butch" Parr who went to grade and high school w/Tommy. When we come down to Wynne to visit Virgil's family, we always included Tommy when he was available. We went out to dinner, the zoo, the Botanical Garden in Memphis and he was always included in the family cookouts on Sundays. He was a kind, generous man and always had a twinkle in his eye. And who has a room in their house dedicated to the Arkansas Razorbacks? Yes, Tommy. He was such a fan and had a room that was dedicated to the team. What a fan. What a collection. What memories. He was a good man, a great friend, a true Christian and an honorable soldier. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. May he rest in peace with the angels.

“ I met Tommy several years ago. He is a good friend of my significant other, Virgil "Butch" Parr, also from Wynne. When Virg and I visit his family in Arkansas, we always included Tom in our plans if he was free. We enjoyed lots of outings in Memphis, ie. the Botanical Gardens, eating out, visitig museums and it was so much fun visiting his home and marveling at his life-long dedication to his Razorbacks. Who has a room dedicated to their favorite team. Well, Tom. It was like a museum.....years of collectibles and he had such pride in all the momentos he has collected and treasured over the years. His quiet, kind demeanor and twinkle in his eye will me missed by many. God bless his soul and may he rest in peace among the angels.

“ There never was a more generous, kind, giving, unassuming person on earth. He truly wanted the best for each and every one of his friends. And there were too many to count. The Razorbacks were his life long passion that gave him so much joy. Everyone loved Tommy.
