“ *Mary Frances,
You are in my thoughts and prayers at this time.
It has been quite sometime since I have seen you. But I remember the days when we were neighbors, Marilyn Lowery lived across the street, Martha Jo Anderson lived on the corner, Mary Anne Baus lived next door to us, when we lived in the Knox house.
God Bless.

“ Bro Larry, you were one of the greatest men of God I have ever had the priviledge of meeting. Your teachings on wednesday nights were phenominal. To look back and see your hands raised during Praise and Worship, well those are memories I will always hold onto. To of just known you for 2 years has brought so many memories, I am somewhat jealous of those who have known you for a lifetime. I hold dear to "Spiritual Growth" by Don Clowers you gave me, and now it means so much more. You were truly a man of God, and your life has preceeded your funeral. You will be missed dearly at Calvary Fellowship as well as everywhere.
