“ There aren't alot of people in your life that you can credit with making a difference in your life, but Lawson was definitely one in mine. Way back when we were both new to the Wynne School system, he saved me from a horrendous nick name by giving me a new one, Thank God ! He looked at me one day and said you look so much like your daddy that they should have named you Brenda Earl !! That name has stuck with me to this day, so much so that some people think that is my real name ! Thank you Lawson, for saving me then and many times in many ways since then. You were a great friend to me then and a great friend to my brother. May God wrap you and your family in his loving arms, until we meet again.
Sincerely, Brenda Earl Davis

“ All Is Well Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped into the next room I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, Speak to me in the easy way which you always used Put no difference in your tone, Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household world that it always was, Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It it the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, Just around the corner. All is well. Thank you for allowoing us to meet one good,caring and loving person he will be sadly missed
