“ I sure miss my brother, it is so hard to think of him gone, just saddens my heart so much. I think of him when i open my eyes each morning and when i go to bed. I sometimes awake in the wee morning hours with him on my mind. I pray he is resting in piece and i know he is not suffering anymore. Love you Lee and you will always live in all of our hearts, your sisters, brothers & your son & daughter and of course Ann. Missed by us all each & everyday.
Love your sister, Shirley
