“ Dear Vicki and Linda -

Your mom seemed more like an aunt to us rather than a cousin. We guess she had a unique ability to make us feel special as aunts often do. Her laughter and her way with words will always be treasured memories. We will hold Letrice in our hearts forever. She will not be forgotten.

Keeping you in prayer,

“ Dear Vicki, Linda, Debbie and all,
Sending love across the miles. My dear mother loved you all so.... who could love better than Jo? I will be there with you in spirit...oh, but if I could have but a small portion of Letrice's grit and spirit...such a fun, outgoing lady she was. The legacy this great generation leaves us is humbling. We are up to it!!!

Rest in peace, dear cousin...save me a seat and a Coke in that great soda fountain in the sky...as we wait in joyful hope for our eternal home, together.

*Love and peace....
Nancy*

I loved growing up and seeing the friendship you and Mrs. Winnie had. You were both always smiling and made me feel so special when I saw you. You wore a pair of gold slippers that curved up on top. I thought you were the neatest little lady I'd ever seen. I'm praying for Linda and Vicki and the rest of your family.
