“ Linda was always a blast to hang with and you sat quiet while with her because there was always something to laugh about. I will cherish all the good memories I have of her friendship.

“ It breaks my heart to lose my beautiful cousin. She and her sister Carolyn were the coolest as I grew up. I loved hanging out with them. Fun and funny! We both lived in California at the same time and I remember riding down Santa Monica Blvd in her convertible singing along to that song by Cheryl Crowe! She came to see me in Germany, Las Vegas, and in Texas. Walks in and immediately starts organizing all my things! Lol! She was an organized hoot! I loved her dearly. I do have comfort that she is at peace now. No more pain or sadness. Back with Charlie and Carolyn and with our Lord and Savior.
