“ I remember following Lisa around when we were little. She would get so aggravated with me. I watched her grow up. She was one of the older kids in my family that I looked up to. She was a wonderful person and she will be missed terribly by our family.

“ I have always loved the Needhams. They have been in my life since 1949 with Clara Mae when we all lived neighbors as sharecroppers around Turrell. Lisa as I remember above all the rest, was the sunshine and will remind so in my mind. My sincere condolences to the Smith, Stephenson, and Needham families.
