“ Joanie and I were privileged to meet Lisa and watch her face her battles with courage and grace. I watched her sitting courtside on days her body would have preferred her to be in bed, but she chose to be with her daughter--never complaining, almost always smiling. The results of her faith was evident in a conversation with Mallory, who quoted comforting passages from the book of Jeremiah when she spoke of her mother's illness. Lisa's legacy as a wife, a mother and a friend is evident in the love shown to this family. May God supply each of you with grace sufficient for the day.

“ I was saddened to hear of Lisa's illness and death. I watched Lisa grow from a beautiful young girl to a lovely young woman.. taking care of others along the way. The Cross Co Hospice Unit was just getting started when my Mother (Annie Laurie Dye) was enrolled... Lisa was one of her wonderful Nurses' - one who took such good care of my Mother as she did all her patients'. I will never forget the kindness she showed to my Mother, Dad & family. She was very special, as her family knew. God has a new Angel watching over her family now, may His strength comfort you all in these times.

“ Jimmy and Shelby, I babysat with Lisa a good bit the summer before my family moved from Parkin. She was just a toddler then but so full of life and very sweet. I pray that you will find comfort in God's promise that he will never leave us. I know you will have many wonderful memories to comfort you during your time of grief.

We have such wonderful memories of growing up together in the youth group we had so much fun, different trips, choir, majorette, staying the nights especially at your house in Parkin, shrimp dip, we always had so much fun.
Gary, Kathy , Mary Ann and I , know all too well that this is a tough pill to swallow, but want you to know that we hope that you feel the love and prayers that are lifted up for the both of you and for Lisas' family.
The love that you showed to her each day passed right down to her and her own special way with her own family.
She has left a beautiful legacy.
