“Sis. Ellis was one of my favorite people. I can remember being in her Sunday School class and she was always so nice to me. Back then, there was always a stigma attached to one from a broken home. She never treated me differently from anyone else in the class and I loved her for it. She was always so friendly in church and would give me a hug. What a Godly lady!”

“Jolene and family . . . what a remarkable lady Sis Ellis was. I remember her first, as my Primary Sunday School teacher, and my last association with her - picking her up for church. She's in a beautiful place and rejoicing with others just to be there! Let's celebrate with her! God bless, Melissa”
