“ So sorry for your loss. I will forever think of how she would call the nuns from St Benard's Hospital whenever my folks (Elvern & Erma Pribble) were admitted and ask the nuns to stop and see about them. She never failed to send them get well cards and Birthday wishes! She was such a sweet and kind woman.

“ To all the Boeckmann family, I wanted to share our family's heartfelt condolences on Ms Margaret's passing. I know she had so many loving children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren she adored and who adored her too. You are all in our family's prayers for grace and peace as you say goodbye to a remarkable lady.

“ Whenever Aunt Margaret and Uncle Otto visited Conway, she, my mom Rose, and Uncle Ray would tell the funniest stories of growing up and they would play cards for hours. It was always such a good noise to hear their laughing and teasing of each other.
There are some good reunions going on in Heaven now. Rest In Peace Aunt Margaret.
