“ Many of my Sunday afternoons growing up Cardwell were spent at Lang and Kathleen's home. Sweetest woman ever. I remember Goulash for Sunday dinner and swimming in the Red Devil ditch with Mollie and Charles. ... I wonder how many years collectively the Lambert ladies lived and what was the secret of the logistic. We should all be so blessed.

“ R.I.P Sweet Lady. I enjoyed taking care of you what little time you got to live with me and your sister Granny Mac (Maxine). You'll always have a special place in my heart. This isn't goodbye, it's see ya later.
Love, Lena
