“ This is such a loss. I never thought about a world without Nina in it, she was just such a good, good person. I've known and loved Nina all my life. She was just like family. She was the most unselfish, caring, forgiving, peaceful and positive person I've ever known. She was always putting others first; friends, neighbors, her community, her aunts and uncles and other kinfolks. She was especially dedicated to and loved so dearly her father and mother, Nigal and Hazel and sister Cozett. She was just the most close to perfect person God ever created. We'll all see you again Nina, some sunny day.
