“ I have many happy memories of Ollie as I have known him most all of my life. He served his country in a distinguished manner and is among the few remaining WW11 soldiers. He will be missed by family and friends but I know he went to a beautiful home in Heaven where there is everlasting love. It comforts me to know that when I cross that river I will see him and many precious friends . May God give you all peace and comfort during this time. Robert and Mary Crawford
